

Hannah Gadsby is an award-winning Australian comedian who thinks quickly and moves slowly. She is sardonic, laconic and, after numerous bone crunching accidents, bionic. Her droll delivery, delightful wordplay and heart-breakingly funny, self-deprecating observations have delighted audiences all over the world.

From 2011 to 2013 you could see her every Wednesday night on ABC TV's acclaimed Adam Hills Tonight.

Desperate to make use of her art history degree, Hannah has written and presented three specials for ABC TV's Artscape and takes every opportunity to present her incredibly popular comedic art lectures at festivals around the world alongside her stand up comedy shows.